■ BIOGRAPHY

Carine DOMINGUEZ-PÉRY is professor at the University of Grenoble Alpes (UGA) – Grenoble IAE School of Management and member of the CERAG laboratory. Her research interests include information systems as strategic levers to create value (in particular in inter-organisational and/or service innovation contexts), knowledge management and digital ecosystems. She has published in several journals such as International Journal of Production Economics, Journal of Strategic Information Systems, Production Planning and Control, Revue Française de Gestion and Systèmes d'Information et Management. She was the scientific coordinator of the French national research project ANR ACIC (Absorptive Capacity for Innovation in Companies) in the context of SMEs innovating in collaborative networks.
